F. No. 6(2)/2017-Exam.II

Dated the 29th March, 2017

NOTICE

Requests / Clarifications regarding NET(I)-2017 / ARS-2016 Examination

The Board is in receipt of some requests / representations / clarifications regarding no vacancy or less vacancy notified under some of the disciplines while notifying ARS – 2016 Examination, age relaxation for women candidates, doubts about prescribed specialization, concerning qualifications etc. The Board has forwarded all such representations to the ICAR for appropriate decision as these are issues to be decided by ICAR and not ASRB. The Board notify the vacancy and eligibility criteria as decided by the appointing authority i.e. ICAR. Hence, the applicants are, therefore, advised to address any request/representation in this regard to The Director (Personnel), Indian Council of Agricultural Research, Krishi Bhawan, New Delhi- 110001.

Further, with regard to various clarifications regarding eligibility of the applicants, it is stated that the eligibility qualifications for each discipline have already been given in the notification of the Examination and it may not be practically possible to clarify and confirm eligibility of each candidate individually.

Some representations have also been received from the applicants for increasing of seats for Online registration at the centre of their choice. In this regard, attention of the applicants is drawn towards clarification contained under para (x) of Important Instructions (Annexure-I) of the Examination Notification which is as under:

“The examination will be conducted Online and the number of computers are limited at each centre. The candidates are advised to submit their application forms at the earliest since the slots/sessions for each centre for each Discipline are limited. In the event of the slot/session for any Discipline at any Centre becoming full, the candidate will have to select any other available slot/session for that Discipline at any other centre of their choice depending upon availability. The status of available slots/sessions will be dynamically changing since it would be concurrently accessed by other candidates also. No request for change of centre once selected and submitted will be considered.”

The applicants may, therefore, note that while it may not be possible for ASRB to accommodate an applicant at the centre of his/her individual choice, it is being ensured that adequate slots for every discipline are available at some of the centres, if not all centres.
